REGISTRATION.

How the Bill was Passed and Who Did It.

Some Names to be Remembered.

The Christian county registration bill was a special order in the House on the 8th inst., and brought on one of the hottest fights seen at Frankfort this year. Eleven o'clock was the hour for it to be taken up, but at that time Mr. Richardson had up a motion to adjourn Apr. 25 and in order to get that disposed of tried to postpone the special order. His motion to that effect was voted down by 37 to 28, and the registration bill was taken up.

Mr. H. B. Clark moved to re-commit the bill and proceeded to make a speech against the measure. He opposed it in a very vigorous style and his effort was a most creditable one, although he failed to defeat the bill. He then asked that the bill be reported, but after the reading had gone on for some time withdrew his demand. It was then fully discussed by Messrs. W. M. Smith, G. W. Duval, Claude M. Thomas, Arthur Wallace and others. The speech of the day was made by Mr. Smith, who made a strong plea for the passage of the bill, and his presentation of the state of affairs in Christian county brought the Democrats into line and many who had been wavering on the score of courtesy to the local member changed over and began working for the bill. Mr. Clark made a speech after the bill was read and appealed to the House to defeat the bill, which he denounced as expensive, troublesome and altogether unnecessary. His arguments lost their weight when Mr. Smith replied with a statement that there were 4,100 white and 2,800 colored voters in the county and that the 2,800 negroes, aided by 700 white Republicans, were in the habit of carrying the county by from 500 to 1,200 majority and that the present nominee for county assessor was a negro. This last statement was not believed until Mr. Clark himself was forced to admit it. Then Mr. Thomas took the floor and made a speech in favor of the bill that carried conviction in every sentence. He declared that the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon race must be held paramount to any questions of courtesy and that the people of Christian county must be given a chance to protect themselves from floaters, repeaters and imported negroes from other counties and states.

The fourteen Republicans, led by Mr. Langley, saw that the only chance to defeat the bill was to filibuster, and began to kill time until the hour for the orders of the day should arrive at 12 o'clock. The orders of the day cannot be dispensed with except by a two-thirds vote and a failure to dispose of the bill by that time would let it drop into that graveyard of bills, the orders of the day. Mr. Able moved to dispense with the orders of the day and the motion carried by a scratch, 50 to 24, the Republican vote being swelled by ten Democrats who had measures in the orders of the day.

The filibusters then undertook to prevent action before the adjournment hour at 1:30 and piled in all sorts of amendments and dilatory motions and called the ayes and nays on all of them that came to a vote. Mr. Clark moved to strike out "Christian" and insert "Graves" county. Rejected—yeas 15, nays 54.

Mr. Bentley moved to amend by striking out the words "Christian county" wherever they occur in the bill and insert in lieu thereof, the words "each county of this Commonwealth." Rejected.

Mr. Langley moved to strike out the enacting clause. Rejected—yeas 11, nays 53.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. Welch, at 12:45 p. m., demanded the main question, which was ordered. Yeas, 64, nays, 12.

Mr. Langley moved to reconsider the vote by which the main question was ordered.

Mr. W. M. Smith moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. So ordered—yeas, 61, nays, 14.

Mr. Langley got the floor shortly after 10 o'clock and made a motion to adjourn till 1 o'clock Wednesday. The Republicans then sent up a half dozen amendments putting the time at 10:45, 10:55, 11:05, 11:15, etc., with the intention of calling the ayes and nays on each and consuming the time till the arrival of 1:30 o'clock would drop the bill into the orders of the day and stop its consideration. Will Smith, Cox and Wallace passed the word around and when the roll was called the Democrats took the wind out of the Republican sails by adopting the amendment fixing the time furthest off, which Speaker Myers ruled should have precedence. Mr. Settle then moved to extend the session until the matter was disposed of, which was done, and the filibusters were given another black eye.

The bill was then put upon its passage. The Republicans, with two exceptions, refrained from voting, hoping to break a quorum, fifty-one votes being necessary to pass the bill. The first call resulted yeas 51, nays 2, and the victory was won. The absentees were then called and the Republicans cast their full strength and five Democrats who had dodged a vote went on the record, making the vote 58 to 14.

Norman, of Henderson, who had been called away suddenly, paired with Hillis, a Republican, but Mr. Hillis forgot the pair and voted and Dr. Norman had his name recorded the next day, as did also Messrs. Welsh, Bruce and G. H. Gardner. The absentees were then called and the Republicans cast their full strength and five Democrats who had dodged a vote went on the record, making the vote 58 to 14.

A RECORD FOR REFERENCE.

Yeas—Able, Bartman, Bailey, Bale, Beauchamp, Scott Brown, Blackberry, Bruce, Burns, Carpenter, Cooper, Counts, Cox, Crossfield, Davis, Draddy, Duval, Flannery, Frazee, T. T. Gardner, G. H. Gardner, Garrison, Gay, Hartin, Hays, Hindman, Holland, James, Jenkins, Lotterle, Middleton, Moore, McClanahan, McClure, McDowell, Nall, Norman, Palin, Pett, Rehbohl, Redwine, Richardson, Riley, Rudy, John Ryan, Settle, Sharp, Shouse, W. B. Smith, W. M. Smith, Stephenson, Terrell, Thomas, Thorne, Tomlinson, Wallace, Walker, Weil, Welch, Wickliffe, Wharton, Wolk, Womack—63.

Noes—Adams, Bentley, Bow, W. H. Clark, H. B. Clark, Coffey, Creech, Farmer, Freeman, Hill, Hillis, Langley, Morris, Murray—14.

Present and not voting (all Democrats)—E. J. Green, of Kenton; Henry Kremer, of Louisville; J. J. Long, of Shelby; John W. Rowell, of Hart; M. D. Vanhoose, of Boyd.

Absent—Briscoe, Doc Brown, Croan, Hoertz, Hensley, Jolly, Kinkead, Mason, Mathews, May, McChord, Roberts, G. E. Ryan, Rep.; Tichenor, Triplett, Warren and Williams.

Mr. Speaker Myers of course had no vote.

The victory was promptly clinched by tabling a motion to reconsider and the house adjourned at 1:50 p. m.

THE FIGHT IN THE SENATE.

Early in the session Wednesday morning Mr. W. M. Smith brought the bill into the Senate as a committee of one from the House.

Senator Hendrick moved to refer it to the Committee on General Statutes, which then had the floor, the intention being to suspend the rules and pass it before adjournment.

Senator Lunsford, who opposed the bill, wanted it referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, a majority of whom were against the bill. This of course would have been fatal to the measure. A vote was taken and Senator Lunsford's amendment was rejected, but on the vote upon the motion the opponents of the bill broke a quorum, only 15 Democrats standing up when a division was demanded. This threw the bill on the clerk's desk and that official, Mr. Glenn, promptly referred it to the General Statutes Committee, of which Senator Wright was chairman. It was acted on that night and was ready to be reported Thursday morning.

When the Senate met Thursday there were 31 Senators on hand, 26 Democrats and 5 Republicans. Of the 26 Democrats, 19 were heartily for the bill, 3 were non-committal and 4—Hays, Hannah, May and McCann—were opposed to passing it over Senator Lunsford's protest. A quorum of 20 votes was necessary to pass the bill. This left the matter in a very doubtful condition and Senator Lunsford was sanguine of success in his efforts to defeat or indefinitely pigeon-hole the matter.

Senator Wright called up the bill and made a telling and argumentative speech in its favor. He was followed by Senator Lunsford, who opposed it on the same grounds that Mr. Clark tried to defeat it in the House and wound up by making a personal appeal to the members to extend him the courtesy of not disregarding his wishes about a matter concerning his own district.

Senator Hendrick warmly supported the bill and after paying a handsome compliment to Senator Lunsford proceeded to argue that the matter was one of too much importance, and the people of Christian county had too much at stake, for and mere question of courtesy to deprive them of a measure that they could not do without and hold honest elections.

Senator Hays, Dem., did most of the talking for Senator Lunsford. He made and supported a motion to print the bill and have it circulated for petitions and remonstrances in Christian county and made a special order for April 17th. While he was speaking Senator May was moving about the Senate chamber carrying on a whispered conversation with those who were not outspoken for the bill.

The ayes and noes were called and this motion defeated by 18 to 11, two not voting. Six Democrats voted with the five Republicans for postponement.

Senators Darby, Glenn and Berry then spoke for the bill and Senator Dickerson moved the previous question. Senator Hays made another attempt to delay action, but the vote was then taken on the main question, in ayes and noes being demanded. This motion prevailed by 21 to 7, Senator May voting with the majority in order to enter a motion to reconsider. Senator Smith anticipated him in this and at once called the ayes and noes on a motion to table the motion to reconsider. May then went over to his crowd and the final vote stood:

HOW THEY VOTED.

Yeas—Anderson, Berry, Bradley, Breckenridge, Cockrell, Darby, Dickerson, English, Gates, Glenn, Hendrick, Kemp, Lindsay, McCain, Peterman, Pieratt, Poyntz, Smith, Terry, Wright—20.

Nays—R. G. Hays, D.; J. B. Hannah, D.; Huff, Lunsford, Martin; D. L. May, D.; Paul, Roberts—8.

Present and not voting—Wm. Goebel, Reuben Connor, John McCann—3.

Only one of the non-committals voted for the bill, but this accession saved it by giving it the exact number of votes needed. There was not one vote to spare. Senator English arrived from Louisville only the night before and Senator Darby had to postpone a case in the Court of Appeals to be on hand. Those absent were Mulligan, Newman, Patterson, Reynolds (who was in the city), Shearer, Rep.; Stewart, Rep., and Wortham.

THAT O. V. APPROPRIATION.

The appropriation of $5,000 of the people's money to the attorneys of the L. & N. railroad, for their services in having the O. V. bonds declared null and void, will raise a howl of indignation over the county. The people voted aid to the road and when a handful of malcontents took the matter into the courts, it was understood at the time that a guarantee fund of $300 to employ the attorneys had been raised by private subscription. This may or may not have been true. In April, 1889, after Judge Grace's adverse decision, the court of claims, or a part thereof, employed Feland, Stites & Feland to continue the case, without making a contract as to the fee. The case was gained and the $200,000 of bonds destroyed and the county lost the road with all its promised benefits. Now the people are forced to pay the bill. The fact that it is an outrage and a legalized robbery of the people is so palpable to the naked eye that comment is altogether unnecessary. The allowance itself seems to have been made by a bit of sharp practice. The subject had been postponed, nine justices had departed, and just before adjournment the question was re-opened and by a vote sustained by 14 of the 34 magistrates the job was put through. The attorneys demanded $10,000 and will refuse to accept the donation unless it be raised to $7,500. This will probably take the matter into the courts. Nobody blames the lawyers for wanting all they can get, but will the people stand it? That's the question.

RANDALL DEAD.

Sam'l J. Randall died in Washington Sunday morning aged sixty-two years. He was a great man and a Democrat, though of late years had not been in accord with the party on the tariff question. He had continuously represented in Congress a Philadelphia district since 1863. His health had been failing for some time. He is the ninth member of Congress who has died in fifteen months.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we can not cure by taking F. J. MEXEY & Co.'s Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Mr. R. H. Rives, son of Mr. Robt. F. Rives, of Casky, will in a few days move to Abilene, Tex., to engage in farming.

C. M. Latham's prizes will be given away to-day at his dry goods store.

Some of them are very handsome and valuable articles.

Rev. Bain, of Texas, who is a student in the Louisville Seminary, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. M. D. Sybert will sell out her farming outfit next Saturday and move to the city to live. A notice of the sale appears in another column.

Purify your blood with Dr. P. T. Rogers' Ideal Alternative, sanctioned by physicians of Hopkinsville.

For sale only by Rogers & Elgin.* 13m

Miss Alice Hays has just returned from the east with a handsome stock of spring millinery. She will have a spring and summer opening next Wednesday, the 16th.

Many of the better class of Republicans are expressing satisfaction at the passage of the registration bill, while not a single Democrat has been found who is not pleased with it.

The Christian county Pomona Grange will meet with Trenton grange Thursday, April 24. Important matters are to be considered and every grange should be well represented.

Tener McComb, col., of this city, has been granted a pension of $12 per month, as dependent mother of George McComb. The allowance dates from Aug. 1889, and was secured through T. E. Lawson.

Rev. T. E. Tiller, pastor of the Pembroke Baptist church, has returned from Thomasville, Ga., where he had been for some time on a leave of absence. He is very much improved in health.

The personal effects of Mr. H. G. O'Neill were sold under the hammer in Louisville last week. Many elegant articles were sacrificed at ridiculously low prices. The sale lasted for two or three days.

Claude Clark will probably open a general merchandise store at Bellevue, the McGehee Bros. having decided to resume business at Gracely. This will keep the postoffice at Bellevue from being discontinued for lack of a postmaster and office.

Rev. S. N. Vail, of Fort Wayne, Ind., preached to good congregations at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening, and made a very favorable impression on his hearers. He will remain in the city this week and preach next Sunday morning and evening.

Papers are being circulated and Rev. John O. Rust will be petitioned by the entire membership of the church to accept the pastorate of the Baptist church. He recently notified the church that he could not accept if called, but it is hoped he may reconsider his determination.

J. R. Hawkins, the well known colored grocer who was recently burned out, has bought L. G. Williams' grocery on Ninth street and resumed business. He has a large trade and his friends, both white and colored, will be glad to know that he has made arrangements to resume business so soon.

C. M. Arnold, employed by the Sunday School Union, will spend three days in this county this week. Tuesday he will lecture at Crofton in behalf of the Sunday School work; Wednesday at Pembroke, and Thursday at the Methodist church in this city. He will be followed by five minutes speeches by several local speakers. All the schools of the city are invited, and the country schools are all urged to send representatives.

The Democratic party of Christian county must not make the mistake of nominating for Delegate to the Constitutional Convention any man who cannot get the united support of the party. To choose a man who made himself offensively conspicuous on either side of the recently settled railroad question would be more than a mistake. It would be a blunder that would stultify the party and jeopardize the success of the entire ticket. It would throw open old sores that should be allowed to heal as soon as possible and disrupt the party for years to come. Let us not make fools of ourselves on the eve of an important election. We cannot afford to do it.

Briefly stated the registration bill provides for a four day's registration in each precinct of the county, which comes this year on June 27 and 28 and July 4 and 5 for the August election. Each voter registered is given a certificate, which must be produced if his vote be challenged and which cannot be duplicated if lost. No voter who fails to register can vote. Four officers will conduct the registration, who will be paid each $100 a day. The expense will be about $450 and $250 additional on Congressional years, when a supplemental registration will be opened two days in October. The bill must be published one time in all the county papers the first week in next month.

PEMBROKE.

The Ladies Aid Society is in a flourishing condition. They are thinking of inviting Hon. John Young Brown (our next Governor) to lecture for them soon.

Policeman R. L. Moore had a very good squad in his "chain gang" breaking rock on the streets this week. And still there are more to follow. Verily the way of the transgressor is hard.

The question of selling the present Baptist Parsonage and building a new one on the church lot is being agitated by the Ladies Aid Society. Members of the church so far as heard from seems to be in favor of it. It is a healthy and desirable piece of property and should bring a good price.

There is considerable diversity of opinion as to the probable yield of the growing crop of wheat. Some say fifty per cent. less than an average crop, some say twenty five per cent. less, while others say there will be an average crop made. That is hard to tell; but we must all confess that it has improved wonderfully in the last ten days.

Col. Thos. W. Porter had one of the finest dogs killed by the train yesterday that was ever brought to this country. He was a bull terrier and was presented by Mr. W. A. Lowry of your place.

Poor Jack is dead.

The shining river he has jumped.

His master's voice he failed to heed.

So on his carcass the wheel did hie.

He was brave indeed.

A Consolidator to tackle.

His master's voice he failed to heed.

So on his carcass the wheel did hie.

Dr. J. M. Pendleton and wife have been on a visit to their many relatives here for several days. Dr. Pendleton preached two very able sermons at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. His congregations were large. His wife, though blind, is as cheerful, entertaining, and as bright as she can be. They go from here to Bowling Green for a few days, and then they will make a visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. Dr. Pendleton preached to some of these people here more than half a century ago.

Everything will be ready to start the new Deposit Bank July first. The large brick house owned by Mrs. Holland has been purchased, and work on the vault will commence in a few days. I understand a large time lock safe has been contracted for. I have urged this matter for the last five or six years. We have the church and the Bank insured, now for the Merchants Flouring Mill and Graded School. The Pembroke Journal, which was issued in the interest of these four institutions, is still on file.

The town and community is almost unanimous for Tom Poore for Clerk of Court of Appeals. In the first place Judges say the office has been run better in the last few years, than it ever was run before. Then Tom Poore is from Southern Kentucky, hailing from Hickman county. It is high time Southern Kentucky was getting some of the offices. But the main reason that Christian county is so strong for Poore, is that our own Sam Gaines is to be Chief deputy. Sam Gaines is to-day the best Democrat in Christian county. Whenever we have had a fight to make, he has invariably come to our rescue; not only in State and County affairs, but even in the city elections at Hopkinsville. Jim McKenney's friends feel that they can't do too much for Sam Gaines. He deserves the compliment. So let us all turn out en masse and do our duty. Poore first, last, and all the time.

President National Bank.

McMinville, Tenn. writes: From experience in my family, Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicines, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels. Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Hot Drops are superior to any remedies we have ever been able to get for throat and lung diseases. W. H. MAGNESS, Pres. Nat'l Bank.

NOTICE—There is a fraudulent Lemon Elixir on the market—a whisky substitute, a Blind Tiger drink. See that you get Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Elixir, an honest, reliable medicine.

Judge J. I. Landes returned from the meeting of Louisville Presbytery at Cloverport last Friday. During the meeting a very distinguished honor was conferred upon him, that of being elected as a delegate to the General Assembly, which meets at Saratoga on the 15th of May. The vote, on motion, was taken by acclamation, and there was not a dissenting voice. The election is a most worthy one, and is rarely enjoyed by an individual more than once in a lifetime. Rev. J. R. Collier, of Louisville, was the ministerial delegate chosen to the same body.
